"101 things to do with..." great gift ideas too!!!we are all used to using the same recipes over and over...great new ideas...maybe you wont like all of them...but with 101 to choose from...you cant go wrong!!!2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. 101 Things to Do with Meatballs BookBy Larry NolanThe seller provided excellent and quick service and my book arrived in excellent condition. I buy frozen premade meatballs from Costco and this book gives me a variety of ways to use/serve them. I have tried a number of the serving suggestions and have enjoyed them all and I am well pleased.3 of 3 people found the following review helpful. 101 Things to do with Meatballs CookbookBy CustomerThis is a great little cookbook. I have several in the "101 Things to Do With" series and I find myself going to them often for a quick recipe. There are no fancy glossy photo pages and the booklets are small, but overall, for the price, I can say you will get your moneys worth.

Meatball Jalapeno Poppers 13 jalapenos, stemmed 1 package (8 ounces) cream cheese, softened 13 frozen, fully cooked meatballs, thawed 13 slices (1 pound) sliced bacon, cut in half Preheat oven to 375 degrees. Slice each pepper in half lengthwise, remove the seeds, and rinse out. Spread cream cheese in each jalapentilde;o half. Cut the meatballs in half. Place each meatball half, cut side down, over cream cheese. Wrap a half slice of bacon around each stuffed jalapentilde;o and secure with a toothpick. Place on a baking sheet and bake 25-30 minutes, or until bacon is browned. Serve immediately on a platter. Makes 26 appetizers. Important note: Use plastic gloves when cutting and preparing peppers to prevent skin irritation.
