He is an avid homebrewer and absolutely loved the 2009 edition. He likes reading about each unique beer and appreciates the beer recipes that come up, I believe, once a week. He keeps it at his desk at work and he says it brings some levity to the daily grind. This is a great, affordable, gift for any beer lover. 0 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Beer A Day Calendar By Derek Bean Highly informative, entertaining page a day calendar featuring a different beer each day, written by noted beer expert Charlie Papazian. I am extremely loyal to this calendar and purchase one every year! Excellent resource and entertaining at the same time. 0 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Nice Beer-related Desk Calendar By J. Kowalczyk This is a nice desk (page a day) calendar for beer fans. It is one of the few (if not the only one) out there. It adds some fun to my workday.

Cheers to beer! The fresh and powerfully hopped Moylander Double IPA. The Jolly Pumpkin Madrugada Obscura

Dark Dawn Stout, with its artisan barrel sourness and decadent bittersweet chocolate. Plus classics like Celebrator Doppelbock, the beautifully balanced Czech Rebel, and the deceptively smooth Double Dead Guy. From Charles Papazian, president of the Brewer's Association, 365 Bottles of Beer recommends hundreds of fantastic lagers, ales, porters, stouts, and seasonal brews, and presents homebrew recipes, beer facts, trivia, and more. For the beer lover, it's a year of captivating discovery.

About the Author Founding president of the American Homebrewers Association and organizer for the Great American Beer Festival and the World Beer Cup, Charlie PaPazian avidly brews lagers, ales and honey meads. He lives in Boulder, Colorado.
