Denny Levin : 50 Most Biscuits before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised 50 Most Biscuits:

Biscuit is a term utilized for a mixed bag of heated, usually flour-based sustenance items. The term is connected to two particular items in North America and the Commonwealth of Nations and Europe. For a rundown of mixtures, see the rundown of bread rolls and treats. The requirement for nutritious, simple to-store, simple to-convey, and enduring nourishments on long trips, specifically adrift, was at first illuminated by bringing live nourishment alongside a butcher/cook. Be that as it may, this consumed up extra room on what were either stallion controlled treks or little ships, decreasing the season of go before extra nourishment was needed. This brought about ahead of schedule armed forces' receiving the style of seeker rummaging. The presentation of the heating of prepared cereals including the production of flour gave a more dependable wellspring of sustenance. Egyptian mariners conveyed a level, weak chunk of millet bread called dhourra cake, while the Romans had a roll called buccellum. Roman cookbook Apicius portrays: "a thick glue of fine wheat flour was bubbled and spread out on a plate. When it had dried and solidified, it was cut up and afterward seared until fresh, then presented with nectar and pepper."
