Whether readers want a light lager perfect for summer drinking, a rich stout, or a full-bodied ale, there is a beer in this volume for every occasion. 500 Beers features friendly, expert guidance to a world of beers, as well as tips on everything from beer and food matching to storing, pouring, and tasting beer.

About the AuthorZak Avery is a beer expert and freelance journalist. Having worked in specialist beer retail for many years, he has carved a niche for himself as a beer writer. He serves on the committee of the British Guild of Beer Writers, and in 2008, he won their highest award: Beer Writer of the Year. He is regularly asked to carry out most people's dream job, judging beer competitions, most notably the International Beer Challenge, a competition that annually establishes the best 50 beers in the world.
