Great variety without "too much weird" By RST One of the issues I find with holiday focused cookbooks is that they want to fill them with exotic strange things that look weird, have difficult methods for creation, or won't likely appeal to a large audience but "look great for a book picture!". This is

NOT that book. This book has a great variety of cookies but stays on track enough to be useful. Great book!

By YEALots of pics and back stories of each cookie. A couple of new recipes that I had not known about. I purchased it both in book form and Kindle. I travel for a living and work on Naval ships as a Baker so this book comes in handy when I want a reference on International cookies.
