Love the cookbookBy Darcey SchlectI love my cookbook - great Recipes, also came to me very fast , many days early1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. An Easy Fun Unique CookbookBy cookrepublicI have been baking from this book for two years now and have tried out many recipes including Coconut Liqueur Macarons, Sticky Chocolate Cake, Lavender Cookies, Raspberry Muffins Brownies. The recipes are simple to bake, the combination of flavours and ingredients a winner. Each section starts with a base recipe for eg Basic Scone. Then it has around 8 to 9 variations to that, each described in detail with photographs for eg Raisin Scones, Spice Scones etc. Same with the section on brownies, cheesecakes, sponge, biscuits etc. There are many interesting recipes that you won't find in other cookbooks and baking them is always such a joy!0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Love the recipes and the pictures but the English is terribleBy OptmiI Love all the recipes and the pictures in this book, however the language is absolutely terrible. English is not my first language but the errors are noticeable even to me. It's a shame that Leila didn't spend the extra money to have the book translated and proof read before print.

A complete, basic, international baking book filled with delicious recipes for everything from biscuits, pastries and cakes to breads, crisp breads and accompanying jams and sauces. New exciting flavor combinations, such as chocolate cupcakes and toffee and pecan pie are featured alongside classics like muffins, meringues and cheesecake as well as nine different flavorings for basic sponge cakes. Recipes for brioche, fougasse from Provence, sourdough baguette and nine types of scones are mixed with healthy rolls, Danish rye bread, Leila's delicious lingonberry loaf and a whole range of tempting little cakes.

About the Author Thirty-one-year-old chef Leila Lindholm, of Swedish-Moroccan background, began her career in the restaurant world. During her career as a chef, Leila has worked at several well-known restaurants including Aquavit in New York, Operakällaren and Fredsgatan 12 in Stockholm. Today she works primarily in TV. Her primetime cooking show is called Leila's Food and airs on Swedish lifestyle channel, TV4 Plus. She also frequently appears cooking her simple and fast recipes on the biggest morning show in Sweden, the TV4 Morning News show, whose viewers voted her "TV Chef of the Year" in 2004.
