following review helpful. An excellent little book!By sem boundriesLike, the previous reviewer, I too have used and loved this recipe book for almost twenty years. And I second everything she's written about it. It appears very simple and unassuming, but that belies the excellence of the recipes. My old book is looking a bit ragged, so I came to in hopes it was still available. Very happy to see it is, and that Laxmi Khurana has another follower.

The 100+ traditional Indian recipes brought together here include curries (meat, vegetable and dhals), starters and everything that characterises Indian cookery for people all over the world.

About the AuthorLaxmi Khurana is an Indian housewife living in the UK. The recipes which she features in this book have been handed down to her through the generations.
