Performs the Job with Great InformationBy misslavonneThese were full of great trivias and teach you a lot about beer, but most importantly people who loved beer, like President Abe Lincoln! I used these for a beer and wine garden during a peanut festival and they were a huge hit! People were continuously reading them. The only reason i did not give them 5 stars is because i thought one side of every coaster is like the cover shown. But not so. The cover is the only card with the word "Beer" on it like that.1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. OK for the price, trivia questions/answers a plus, but not tavern/bar qualityBy JVTI was hoping these might have the thickness, texture and quality of the coasters found in better taverns bars. Unfortunately, this is not the case. These are thinner with a "slick" finish and feel more like playing cards than tavern coasters. On the other hand, the price per coaster is fine and trivia questions/answers are fun for the home bar. I will use these, but will not buy again.1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. garbageBy jonathanThe coasters have some cool trivia on them but they're cheap, thin cardboard and last one drink, I bought them to use in a bar but I wouldn't even use them at home.

What makes a good beer better?Answer: Fifty fun coasters that'll quench your thirst for knowledge as you make your way to the bottom of the glass. From what quantifies a lager to when the pull-tab can was invented, each one challenges you to think while you drink and take a shot at answering a trivia question about your favorite beverage. Bottoms up!
