Bob Steel : CAMRA's Yorkshire Pub Walks (CAMRA's Pub Walks) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised CAMRA's Yorkshire Pub Walks (CAMRA's Pub Walks):

This is a pocket-sized traveler's guide to some of the best walking and best pubs in the Lake District. The walks are grouped geographically and also explore some of the region's fascinating historical and literary heritage, as well as its thriving brewing scene. The book contains essential information about local transport and accommodation. The walks include Settle and Upper Ribblesdale, Whitby to Robin Hood's Bay, Bronteuml; country: Haworth and Ponden, Sheffield: Kelham Island and the "valley of beer," and Hullrsquo;s old town: a fishy trail.

About the AuthorBob Steel is a geographer by profession and has been a teacher for much of his life. Apart from a lifelong interest in good beer and good architecture, he is a keen walker, cyclist, and organic gardener.
