Chang Isabelle : Chinese Cooking made Easy before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Chinese Cooking made Easy:

MacinnisOne of the things I love most about this book are all the old stories about how things were years ago, when they had moon festival ceremonies or how they sent off the Kitchen God before the New Year. This cookbook has authentic recipes, but the absolute best part of it is the many stories told of family living and the importance of the kitchen in daily life. My old copy fell apart - and that is why I ordered a new one.
