Going Green getting healthyBy VeniestaAlthough I did not purchase this book from , it is a marvelous book with lots of good recipes . Some of my favorites are the Mint Rejuvenator it is good for the liver , kidney and helps lower cholesterol, The Green Envy is very good , The Green Cleaner is excellent , i'm not a fan of Avocado but in this recipe i did not taste it at all and juice was excellent , last but not least the Fennel Flush , it was my first time ever buying Fennel let alone putting it into a juice , but i was really good , I was surprised if you purchase this book and is serious about going GREEN, you will not be disappointed with this book.0 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Five StarsBy yadiraExcellent !!!!

Science has proven that green leafy vegetables and fruit knock all others off the top spot for their spectacular concentration of phytonutrients, vitamins, and fiber, and the quickest way to get an instant boost of these healthy greens is in a juice or smoothie. Packed with raw, whole vegetables and fruit, as well as herbs, spices, and healthy fats, these fabulous recipes are literally a health boost in a glass -- or bowl. If you juice regularly, you'll be getting all the essential vitamins, antioxidants, and minerals that you need. Whether you're trying to get in shape, boost your general health, or give your body a deeply nourishing cleanse, incorporating green juices and smoothies into your diet is the simplest and most effective way to eat clean and green!
