By Luv2BAMom As the Mom of an 8-year old daughter who really enjoys to bake I found this book to be a wonderful addition to our kitchen library. There are so many baking/cooking books 'out there' but this book just called to us...both. The recipes are fabulous, but that's not even the best of it. The pictures... the stories... not only do I get to bake with my daughter and enjoy our special time together. But she gets to learn so much. This book has given her an awareness she may never have known. She brought it to 'show tell' to share the book [and more importantly it's awareness] with her teacher and classmates she's already planning a BAKE SALE to help raise money for the very necessary cause of COOKIESFORKIDSCANCER. Indeed this is a most wonderful cooking book that sweetens ones life in so many beautiful ways. (By the way, my Christmas shopping is near complete as I have purchased this for family/friends, my daughters teachers sport coaches!) 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Should be Mandatory for ALL Serious Bakers!

Every cookie makes a difference! In December 2007, Gretchen Holt-Witt set the lofty goal of baking and selling 96,000 cookies during the holidays, all in the name of funding research for pediatric cancer, the #1 disease killer of kids in the United States and the disease her young son was battling. Armed with the determination of a mom on a mission plus the knowledge that funds for research mean more treatment options, better survival rates, and hope for the future, Holt-Witt succeeded in selling all 96,000 cookies and raising over $400,000 for new pediatric cancer treatments. Long after the ovens cooled, requests for more cookies along with offers to help poured in. Gretchen knew she was onto something. She and her husband Larry answered the call to action by starting Cookies for Kids' Cancer (cookiesforkidscancer.org), a national non-profit that inspires people to host bake sales of all sizes, from desktops and porches to entire corporations and communities, with some raising more than $30,000 in one day. Cookies for Kids' Cancer went on to partner with The Glad Products Company, inspiring thousands of individuals with Glad's promise to match funds raised at bake sales. The partnership has received attention from Martha Stewart, CNN, Parade, Redbook, Ladies Home Journal, Woman's Day, O The Oprah Magazine, the Today show, and more. With experience, passion, heart, and great stories from bake sale hosts, this cookbook was created to inspire more bake sales as well as directly benefit this amazing charity. 100% of the author's proceeds and royalties will be donated to Cookies for Kids' Cancer for pediatric cancer research. The recipes include easy-to-prepare treats for cookies, brownies, bars, cupcakes, quick breads, and more. In addition, there are tips on starting your own bake sale and inspirational quotes and stories throughout the book.
