Far Better-than-Average Cookies and Baked Goods!By Kathy drakeThis is a delightful and entirely reliable compendium of cookies and sweets. Perhaps one reason these recipes are so good is that the author often uses a blend of regular flour with cake flour -- different from most other recipes. Not sure if that's the secret, all I know is that every time i try another recipe, it's a new favorite! Highly recommend this book! Makes a great (house)gift, as well.

Lisa Yockelson's Country Cookies contains sixty recipes for home-baked, all-natural cookies-the quintessentially American baked treat. Evoking cozy rural kitchens filled with the scent of good baking, With a strong nostalgic feel, enticing recipes and some innovative twists on the familiar, Country Cookies will capture the imagination of the novice and master cookie maker alike.
