

Cross Stitch: Skills, Techniques, 150 Practical Projects

Dorothy Wood

Download PDF | ePub | DOC | audiobook | ebooks*

#4656545 in Books 2016-03-07Original language:EnglishPDF # 1 9.02 x .96 x 6.881, .0 #File Name: 0857238051256 pages | File size: 64.Mb

Dorothy Wood : Cross Stitch: Skills, Techniques, 150 Practical Projects before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Cross Stitch: Skills, Techniques, 150 Practical Projects:

1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. one flaw, a pretty big oneBy CAI like that this book has many designs not very common, for example, drangons and unicorns. But the font is small and there is one design (one that i kNow off as of right now) which the chart is printed across two pages and the very middle of the chart cannot be seen. I will upload a pic for reference. I really wanna stitch that design (a dragon with wings) but sadly unless i break the book, i will not be able to see the chart. It is very upsetting3 of 4 people found the following review helpful. Worst cross stitch book everBy Penny L. CarlsonI ordered this based on the cover. Well, that is the only decent pattern in the whole book! The designs are tired and sad. Book size is small and the charts are minute...seriously impossible to use.

Do not buy it, I beg of you! 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. It's not all bad! By Heather While some patterns are indeed small, there are some gems in here! I particularly liked the Celtic section as well as the runners. That being said many of the patterns are either meant to look historic or based on retro designs. There are plenty of well sized charts, though some are rather small for the very large projects.

Create beautiful cross-stitching projects, with easy-to-follow charts, step-by-step instructions and over 400 pictures.

About the Author Dorothy Wood specialized in textiles and embroidery at Goldsmith's College, London. In addition to writing practical books on crafts, Dorothy works as a features writer and technical consultant for a number of specialist craft and needlework magazines.