Johnson This book is hands down my favorite dumpling recipe book. I love fried dumplings, and now I have a new favorite.. shrimp and chive filled dumplings. They were so creamy and filling. I've been dying of boredom in my kitchen, using the same ten recipes that I've known forever, so this was perfect for me. The potato filled dumplings were so rich and delicious, I can't wait to try every single dumpling and sauce listed in this book. So easy to follow and simple ingredients. This one is a must have!

There are so many methods listed to enjoy the pot stickers and it even includes some amazing dipping sauces at the end. I seriously would've never thought of bacon dumplings, but that is by far my favorite recipe. I made the soy and vinegar dipping sauce from the end of the book, and I think it's my favorite combination of flavors on the planet. This book is definitely worth the purchase, and I've already recommended to my kitchen savvy friends!

I'm going to keep practicing. Maybe I just don't have the knack for it like some of the other reviewers. Gordon Rock has some delicious recipes in this book. It's too bad he can't appear at my home and cook them for me. Ha!
